Elizabeth Hummel & Brian Castillo from Waterwitch to perform Original Music at CBHA

Singer-songwriter, Steamboat Islander (and friend to many of us in CB) Elizabeth Hummel and partner Brian Castillo will perform a very special concert of original music at the Clubhouse on Saturday Oct. 19, at 7:00 PM. Doors open at 6:30, refreshments served. Surprise guest musicians possible! $10-20 suggested donation. Everybody welcome!

Elizabeth and Brian are the Olympia folk duo Waterwitch. The songs on their new album The Light Inside You are a journey through themes of nature, meditation, the interweaving of darkness and light, and a longing for a universal language to bridge the deep divides between us. They speak to the dark dilemmas of our times along with reflections of clouds dancing on the water. Rooted deep in the Appalachian and English folk tradition of Elizabeth's childhood, the songs are resonant, eternal and timeless.

IF YOU SEE SOMETHING, SAY SOMETHING...

Generally, green waste dumping is in violation of several regulations, including basic litter laws. If garbage is included, contact the Environmental Health of the Thurston County Health Department.

For shoreline dumping, contact the Washington State Department of Ecology. <https://ecology.wa.gov/About-us/Get-involved/Report-an-environmental-issue>

If yard waste is left to be picked up by the rising tide, WA Dept. of Fish and Wildlife is also the contact:

Cross Connections – What Are They and What Can They Do?

A cross-connection is a point in a plumbing system where it is possible for a non-potable substance to come into contact with the potable drinking water supply. Most cross-connections occur beyond the customer service connection, within residential (or commercial) plumbing systems.

To protect our drinking water, per WAC-246-290-490, we must annually survey our water recipients for any potential issues. If you have underground irrigation systems, continuous water connections to pools, hot tubs, waterfalls, ponds, heat exchangers, radiant floor heating systems, etc., backflow protection is required to prevent contamination of our water supply.

If you have questions on any connections at your house, call the office at 360-866-0717 to ask for a courtesy check by our water specialist.

We've had water use surveys in our Annual Meeting packets for some time now. We will be sending out more educational materials in the coming months to help you understand the importance of that survey.
